People: who sends the rain from heaven, nurturing all that grows.

3:00 Come Thou Almighty King

UMH #61, vs. 1-4

1:00 Prayer of Confession

ALL: Lord Jesus, when we are around unfamiliar people, we often become anxious and don't know what to say. It is easier to walk past others and neglect a greeting or to acknowledge the other person's presence. While we know this is not what you want, we still shelter ourselves. Lord, forgive us, we pray. May we open our hearts to see and greet in new ways. Amen.

1:00 Words of Assurance

Liturgist: Our Savior lived a life like ours and understands our human frailties. He understands our fear of strangers and forgives us. Jesus would ask that we do better, that we welcome the stranger, that we find new ways to create a sense of home for all who come here.
